Buddha Spirit

collection

3 CDs + bonus DVD • APS5959
Mantras / Instrumental

This exceptional box set presents the entirety of the « Buddha Spirit » trilogy. Regrouping 3 CDs along with a bonus DVD of visual meditations, the Buddhist mantras have never sounded as gently serene, nor been as instantly accessible to the Western ear, uniting ageless oriental traditions with original music from the occident. Anael's vocal performances resonate with stunning purity, conquering time and space while enabling the transcending of physical surroundings to attain a clear, focused state. Long renowned for their healing and spiritual properties, the sacred Sanskrit seed syllables here acquire a clear aesthetic dimension, gracefully balancing both the masculine and feminine energies. Bradfield's melodic adaptations are fresh and inspired, empowering each sentient being who awakens in their vibrations.
