Bradfield presents the second installment in his « Healing Energy » series, focusing this time on the sacred feminine and the unification of our etheric body. Once again presented in a truly relaxing sonic space, this music facilitates access to our inner sanctuaries and encourages a natural restoration of our body's equilibrium. It slows down the pace of our hurried lives and helps to still the mind, thereby enabling the healing process to occur. It purifies the cells, opens our 7 chakras in sequence and lifts our vibration, all while wrapping us in a gentle, nurturing cocoon. Composed specifically for all types of energetic work, treatments and massage, « Healing Energy 2 » creates the perfect ambiance for a complete harmonization of our general health and well-being.
