After Bradfield's popular « Buddha Spirit » trilogy, his latest production sees a return to the fascinating Buddhist culture for a deeper exploration of the Sanskrit mantras. « Mantra Spirit » presents an opportunity for a heightened connection with our "higher self", wrapped in captivating sounds and seductive, hypnotic rhythms. Honoring the rich heritage of these timeless sacred syllables with refreshing new arrangements, these mantras act as catalysts, opening unimagined doors into other dimensions as well as a clear means of access. Bradfield's voice goes beyond simple singing — it acts as our guide, cutting through time and space as a laser beam, becoming a powerful instrument of healing and grounding. « Mantra Spirit » is as much a tool for transformation as a therapeutic album, a surprising escapade that brings a solid sense of well-being into the daily bustle of our complex lives.
